A public beach to spend the day in the lake, rent a self-propelled water craft or, if the kids are with you, enjoy the playground.

Boating

Lake Wallenpaupack

Lake Wallenpaupack is 1.5 miles from town and is a boater's paradise. The lake is 52 miles in circumference, 13 miles long and is fabulous for any boating activity, from a quiet water kayak or paddle board to a powerboat or sail. There is a public access area at Mangan Cove (one mile from town) for your own boat or rent from the following:

- Lighthouse Harbor Marina
- Wallenpaupack Scenic Boat Tour & Boat Rentals

Delaware River

The upper Delaware region is great for canoeing or kayaking. Liveries align both sides of the river. Spend a day on the river enjoying a quiet float or be more adventurous and take on the class 2 and 3 rapids. Kittatinny offers rivers adventures for every level. Landers River Trips is another good option.

Pocono Action Sports

Fishing

Casting and Fly Fishing are great on the Lackawaxen River. The backyard of the Settlers Inn is bordered by the Lackawaxen River - a haven for anglers. Put on your hip boots or waders or fish along the banks of the river. Enjoy the natural sand beach and easy access to the river. The Lackawaxen is stocked each spring with trout. John Appert, with more than 50 years of fishing experience, is a fly fishing guide on the Lackawaxen.

🌐 www.johnappert.com

Lake Wallenpaupack is THE place to fish for striped bass - the elusive stripers! Wallenpaupack Sports Shop can provide you with fishing tips as well as bait and fishing licenses, which are required in Pennsylvania. The Big Lake is also a cool spot for to set up your tip-ups for ice fishing in the winter months.

Skytop Lodge has a fishing and shooting center endorsed by Orvis, the Sporting Traditionists.

FOUR HISTORIC SMALL TOWNS

Hawley, Pennsylvania

The center of commerce for the Lake Region of the Pocono Mountains, this little town offers many activities for visitors. It has more than 17 acres of open space at the confluence of three rivers. VisitHawleyPa.com will give an updated calendar of news and events along with a complete listing of shop and eateries.

Affectionately known as The Big Lake, Lake Wallenpaupack is just two miles east of town. Be sure to stop in at the Visitor's Center and the PPL Environmental Learning Center to find out more about the history of the lake and collect maps and brochures.

The historic Main Street has recently been restored and was voted one of 20 small towns in America to receive a facelift from the Benjamin Moore Paint Company.

Shopping

The Potting Shed Gift Shop at the Settlers Inn has seasonal merchandise that is carefully curated to offer merchandise of the highest quality craftsmanship and environmental friendliness. Items in the shop include jewelry, pottery, and goods for the home and garden.

The Hawley Silk Mill is the gateway to Hawley on the southern end of town. Originally known as The Bellemonte Silk Mill, the building is the largest bluestone building in the world. In 2009, the property underwent a multimillion dollar renovation and now houses a retail complex, fitness center, college, performing arts center and many other independent businesses. Antique Shops are abundant in Hawley including Miss Elly's, The Antique Emporium, Timely Treasures and Sand Stone Antiques, just to name a few.

Arts, Culture, & History

Lock House 31

Lock House 31, circa 1820, is on the old Delaware and Hudson Canal, just a mile west of Hawley. Here you can learn about the history of the canal, the first million-dollar enterprise in the United States. Stroll along the towpath and imagine the canal boats and mules.

📍 <http://www.waynehistorypa.org/plid/126>

A few miles west on Hawley on the way to Honesdale is the hamlet of White Mills. The Dorflinger-Suydam Wildlife Sanctuary, Dorflinger Glass Museum and The Wildflower Theatre are all located on this 600 acre former home and property of Christian Dorflinger who was a famous glass cutter for many years in the 1800's. The firm cut glass for the Lincoln White House and many fine examples are in the museum.

The Wildflower Theatre

This outdoor concert venue has Saturday evening performances on the lawn in July and August. The property also offers 5 miles of hiking trails.

📍 http://www.dorflinger.org/wildflower_music_festival.html

Harmony Presents

This venue is great for concerts on Saturday nights. This small theatre is in the "boiler room" of the Silk Mill and hosts great entertainment in a club like atmosphere. It features an outdoor terrace overlooking the beautiful Paupack River Gorge and Waterfalls.

📍 <http://www.silkmillharmony.com/>

Ritz Company Playhouse

This community art deco style theatre has been offering performances during the summer for more than 40 years.

📍 <http://www.ritzplayhouse.com/>

Honesdale, Pennsylvania

Travel west of Hawley on Route 6 for nine miles, and you will arrive in Honesdale; the county seat of Wayne County. It was established in a coal mining region during the 19th century and was the starting point of the Delaware and Hudson Canal, which provided transport of coal to Kingston, NY and then down the Hudson river to New York City.

Greater Honesdale Partnership

Shopping

Wallflower is a main street store features clothing and gifts - everything from the practical to whimsical.

Maude Alley – shops include, Alley Whey Cheese Shoppe – cheese specialty shop, Moody Road Studio – books and limited fine art, Milkweed – women’s clothing, The Joy of Art – fine art restoration and framing, The Wayne County Arts Alliance – fine art gallery. Antique Emporium – a multi dealer antique emporium for sales and restoration. Art’s for Him and Her Too – Home town store featuring men’s and ladies’ clothing.

Gentle Arts is a full service knit shop offering lessons, yarn and all things “knitting.”

Dining

FiestaOnMainMexicanRestaurant

Arts, Culture & History

This small town has great offerings for Arts and Entertainment.

The Cooperage Project offers performances, children's programs and a farmers market.

Art is on display at the Hanson Gallery and The Willow River Gallery featuring art and artisans from the area.

Milford, Pennsylvania

Travel east of Hawley on Route 6 for 25 miles and you will arrive in Milford. This village is on the National Register of Historic Places. The US Department of Forestry was born here at Grey Towers, home of Gifford Pinchot. Milford is on the eastern edge of the Pocono Plateau and there are many scenic waterfalls within a short drive. Broad Street is the spot for shopping and dining.

Shopping

The historic Forest Hall is the anchor building in town and houses some delightful shops such as Up River Home and the David Greenbaum Gallery, The Artery, and several antique shops. There are many more shops and galleries in Milford.

On Route 6, halfway between Hawley and Milford is Alice's Wonderland. This "outfitter" has been here for generations. It is the perfect place to find everything you need for your outdoor adventures from sun glasses to hiking boots to life jackets and kayaks.

Arts, Culture & History

The Columns is the home of Pike County Historic Society and Museum.

The Milford Theatre is the home of Kindred Spirits Arts Program. This theatre is home to the Black Bear Festival. Special music nights are also offered.

Touring the Mansion and Grounds of Grey Towers is highly recommended. Be sure to see the outside “serving pool” where Mrs. Pinchot entertained her guests around a floating table.

Between Milford and Hawley there are several noteworthy excursions. The tiny village of Lackawaxen is home to the Roebling Bridge and Zane Grey Museum. The bridge was originally an aqueduct that allowed canal boats traveling the D&H corridor to cross the river. The Zane Grey museum was the home of the famous author and several of his novels were written here. Grey was an avid fisherman and loved to fly fish in the Lackawaxen River at the confluence of the Delaware.

The towns of Milford, Hawley, and Honesdale are all on US Route 6, a national scenic byway.

Dining

The Patisserie is a scrumptious bakery in town where you can have a lazy lunch on the porch and relax.

Bar Louis at The Hotel Fauchere is a favorite spot for lunch or dinner.

Narrowsburg, New York

Traveling west on Route 6 for 5.3 miles then PA-652 E for 10.6 miles you will arrive in the quaint hamlet of Narrowsburg located in the western part of the Town of Tusten in Sullivan County.

Shopping

4 Corners of Artful Living, and Tom's Treasures and Furniture both located on the Main street offering antiques and collectibles.

The Nest, a small town department store with unique offerings.

For the arts and artisans, visit the River Gallery.

Dining

The Heron Restaurant is a wonderful café with a deck for dining overlooking the Delaware River.

Arts, Culture & History

The Tusten Theatre – an art-deco style theatre built in the 1930's - a favorite Catskills venue for concerts, opera, theatre performances, as well as film.

Not far out of town is Bethel Woods Center for the Arts; a modern venue on the former Woodstock site. This not-for-profit cultural center offers Performance & Festivals, Arts & Education and houses the Woodstock Museum.

Visit Fort Delaware, the museum of Colonial History located on the outskirts of town.
